Catalogues are given from Mrs. Oliver in Normich, and Mr. Giles, Booksellers, 1693.

6.

To the Gentry and Citizens of Norwich, &c.

THE Design of this Sale, and of all others that have been made of this Nature, is the advancement of Knowledge in the best Things, and improving the Minds of Men in the most important Matters: And having had some experience, both of your Candour in Encouraging, and Ingenuity of Receiving the Books I sold you some Years past, I presently resolved to present you with a second Collection of substantial Ones of the best Writers of our Nation, Old and New, well knowing your Ability to discern, and Judgment to make choice of the Works of the most Eminent Authors. Without Flattery, or further Preamble, the Proprietor hopes for a Benefit and honest Profit by the Sale: And I purpose (God willing) to oblige you with my Time and Breath; always believing, and rationally expecting from my good Friends (the Citizens of Norwich) a commendable Zeal in promoting what is so sincerely undertaken, in order to the obtaining such noble Ends and excellent Purposes as are above mentioned. Your Friend and Servant, in the Affairs of Learning,

EDWARD MILLINGTON.

Conditions of Sale.

I. HE who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, the said Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again, and the Sale decided by the Sales-man.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen will be pleased to give in their Names and Places of Abode after their buying any Book or Books, paying also 5 s. in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they shall buy (if demanded) and so proportionably for all lesser Sums.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books bought is to be paid within three days after the Auction is ended, at the place of Sale, where the Books shall be ready to be delivered to them, or their Order.

This Sale will begin at Mrs. Oliver's House in Norwich, on Monday July 16. from 9 in the Morning to 12, and from 4 to 8. continuing daily till all are sold.
